1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS.

2 Congress finds and declares the following:

3 (1) United States international broadcasting ex-

4 ists to advance the United States interests and val-

5 ues by presenting accurate, objective, and com-

6 prehensive news and information, which is the foun-

7 dation for democratic governance, to societies that

8 lack a free media.

9 (2) Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of 10 Human Rights states that “[e]veryone has the right

11 to freedom of opinion and expression”, and that 12 “this right includes freedom to hold opinions without

1 interference and to seek, receive and impart infor-
2 mation and ideas through any media and regardless 3 of frontiers”.

4 (3) Secretary of State Hillary Clinton testified
5 before the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the 6 House of Representatives on January 23, 2013, that 7 the Broadcasting Board of Governors (BBG) “is 8 practically a defunct agency in terms of its capacity
9 to be able to tell a message around the world. So 10 we”re abdicating the ideological arena and need to 11 get back into it.”.

12 (4) The BBG, which was created by Congress
13 to oversee the United States international broad-14 casting in the wake of the Cold War, has, because 15 of structural and managerial issues, had limited suc-
16 cess to date in both coordinating the various compo-
17 nents of the international broadcasting framework
18 and managing the day-to-day operations of the Fed-
19 eral components of the international broadcasting 20 framework.

21 (5) The lack of regular attendance by board
22 members and a periodic inability to form a quorum 23 have plagued the BBG and, as a result, it has been 24 functionally incapable of running the agency.

1 (6) The board of governors has only achieved
2 the full slate of all nine governors for seven of its 3 17 years of existence, which highlights the difficul-4 ties of confirming and retaining governors under the 5 current structure.

6 (7) Both the Department of State's Office of 7 Inspector General and the Government Account-
8 ability Office have issued reports which outline a se-9 verely dysfunctional organizational structure of the 10 Broadcasting Board of Governors.

11 (8) The Inspector General of the Department of 12 State concluded in its January 2013 report that dys-
13 function of the BBG stems from "a flawed legisla-14 tive structure and acute internal dissension".

15 (9) The Inspector General of the Department of 16 State also found that the BBG's structure of nine 17 part-time members "cannot effectively supervise all 18 United States Government-supported, civilian inter-19 national broadcasting", and its involvement in day-
20 to-day operations has impeded normal management 21 functions.

22 (10) The Government Accountability Office re-
23 port determined that there was significant overlap
24 among the BBG's languages services, and that the

1 BBG did not systematically consider the financial 2 cost of overlap.

3 (11) According to the Office of the Inspector
4 General, the BBG's Office of Contracts is not in 5 compliance with the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 6 lacks appropriate contract oversight, and violates the 7 Anti-Deficiency Act. The Office of the Inspector
8 General also determined that the Broadcasting
9 Board of Governors has not adequately performed
10 full and open competitions or price determinations, 11 has entered into hundreds of personal service con-
12 tracts without statutory authority, and contractors
13 regularly work without valid contracts in place.

14 (12) The size and make-up of the BBG work-
15 force should be closely examined, given the agency's 16 broader broadcasting and technical mission, as well
17 as changing media technologies.

18 (13) The BBG should be structured to ensure 19 that more taxpayer dollars are dedicated to the sub-20 stantive, broadcasting, and information-related ele-
21 ments of the agency's mission.

22 (14) The lack of a coherent and well defined
23 mission of the Voice of America has led to program-24 ming that duplicates the efforts of the Office of 25 Cuba Broadcasting, Radio Free Asia, RFE/RL, In-

1 corporated, and the Middle East Broadcasting Net-
2 works, Incorporated that results in inefficient use of 3 tax-payer funding.

4 (15) The annual survey conducted by the 5 “Partnership for Public Service” consistently ranks
6 the Broadcasting Board of Governors at or near the 7 bottom of all Federal agencies in terms of “overall 8 best places to work” and “the extent to which em-
9 ployees feel their skills and talents are used effec-10 tively”. The consistency of these low scores point to 11 structural, cultural, and functional problems at the 12 Broadcasting Board of Governors.

13 (16) The Federal and non-Federal organiza-
14 tions that comprise the United States international 15 broadcasting framework have different, yet com-16 plementary, missions that necessitate coordination at 17 all levels of management.

18 (17) The Broadcasting Board of Governors has 19 an overabundance of senior civil service positions,
20 defined here as full-time employees encumbering GS-
21 14 and GS-15 positions on the General Schedule pay 22 scale.

23 (18) United States international broadcasting
24 should seek to leverage public-private partnerships, 25 including the licensing of content and the use of

1 technology owned or operated by non-governmental 2 sources, where possible to expand outreach capacity.

3 (19) Shortwave broadcasting has been an im-
4 portant method of communication that should be 5 utilized in regions as a component of United States
6 international broadcasting where a critical need for 7 the platform exists.

8 (20) Congressional action is necessary at this 9 time to improve international broadcasting oper-
10 ations, strengthen the United States public diplo-
11 macy efforts, enhance the grantee surrogate broad-
12 casting effort, restore focus to news, programming, 13 and content, and maximize the value of Federal and 14 non-Federal resources that are dedicated to public 15 diplomacy and international broadcasting.

16 SEC. 3. PURPOSES.

17 The purposes of this Act are as follows:

18 (1) To provide objective, accurate, credible, and 19 comprehensive news and information to societies
20 that lack freedom of expression and information.

21 (2) To improve the efficiency, effectiveness, and 22 flexibility of United States international broad-
23 casting to allow it to adapt to constantly changing 24 political and media environments through clarifica-

1 tion of missions, improved coordination, and organi-
2 zational restructuring.

3 (3) To coordinate the complementary efforts of 4 the Department of State and United States inter-
5 national broadcasting.

6 (4) To create a United States international
7 broadcasting framework that more effectively
8 leverages the broadcasting tools available and cre-
9 ates specialization of expertise in mission oriented
10 programming, while minimizing waste and ineffi-
11 ciency.

12 (5) To improve United States international 13 broadcasting workforce effectiveness, security, and 14 satisfaction.

6 national broadcasting is conducted only to countries and 7 regions that—

8 (1) lack democratic rule, or the indicia of demo-9 cratic rule, such as demonstrable proof of free and 10 fair elections;
